

CHARLES H. HYDE UNDER CLOSE WATCH AFTER HIS OPERATION

Physician to Stay at Bedside of Former City Chamberlain for Twenty-four Hours.

Former City Chamberlain Charles H. Hyde, who resigned his post after his conviction of bribery, which, however, was set aside three months ago by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, was operated on this morning for the removal of a stone from the kidney. Dr. J. Bentley Squier of No. 6 West Forty-second street, performed the operation in the Post Graduate Hospital, Twentieth street and Second avenue.

So far as known the operation was successful. Mr. Hyde will be watched for twenty-four hours, however, lest he take a turn for the worse. Dr. Squier is by no means out of danger. Physicians say that after such operations serious complications may come at any time in the ensuing twenty-four hours. A physician who assisted at the operation said that Mr. Hyde was in the very best possible condition to undergo the ordeal.

None of Mr. Hyde's relatives was present at the operation, and none will be allowed to see him until tomorrow. Then, it is expected, he will be out of danger and in a condition to receive his family and friends.

Mr. Hyde was moved into the operating room at 8 o'clock this morning. It was five minutes of 9 when he was taken back to his room, still under the influence of the ether. One of his physicians said that he had stood the operation well, having spent a restful night from which he awoke early and in a cheerful frame of mind. It was half the battle that Mr. Hyde had no fear of the operation.

That the ordeal had to come today, however, was a source of deep regret to Mr. Hyde and he had argued with his physicians to postpone it at least until after Mayor Gaynor's funeral on Monday. He was determined to attend this if it was possible.

The one-time City Chamberlain and possessor of the Mayor was confined to his home with his ailment when Mr. Gaynor died. He had been unable to see the Mayor off, but it was a note in which he explained his inability to wish the Mayor bon voyage in person. The Mayor sent back a note in which he told Mr. Hyde for having kept from him all knowledge of the ex-City Chamberlain's illness, ending by saying:

"You're just like I am. We keep our troubles to ourselves."

The operation had been set for last Friday, but Mr. Hyde's pleadings were some delay, and Dr. Squier and Dr. Weidman of No. 6 West Fifty-second street agreed to postpone the operation as long as possible. Mr. Hyde was in such pain yesterday that the physicians put him in a lath and rushed him to the hospital from the Hotel McAlpin, where he was staying. Mr. Hyde was so weak that he had to be carried from the car into the hospital, but even then he begged for just three more days. The doctors took the case into their own hands, however, and Mr. Hyde became reconciled when he realized that further pleading would be of no avail.

SLUTH, PUT ON BEAT, STICKS TO OLD HUNT AND LANDS HIS MAN

Detained Detective Uses His Time Off Duty to Run Down Alleged Slayer.

Frank Allen, a plainclothes policeman attached to the West One Hundredth street police station, worked arduously and under difficulties from the middle of June until yesterday to catch Pat Reilly, accused of murder. He caught him yesterday at Adrian, N. Y., and brought him to Headquarters today. Reilly, after he had worked on his own time and after having been demoted from the detective force to the pavement.

Margaret Conroy was stabbed at her home in Gansevoort street, June 25, and died in Bellevue Hospital after having consumed Reilly, a lodger in her house, of having been her assailant. Allen, then attached to the Detective Bureau of the Charles street station, was assigned to "bring in" Reilly. He learned that Reilly's wife was an insane patient on Ward's island and that a woman in West Thirty-first street visited Mrs. Reilly occasionally.

Watching the house in West Thirty-first street, Allen was rewarded one day by seeing the woman under surveillance mail a letter when the house was alive. He obtained the letter and found it was addressed to Patrick Boyle at William, N. J. Before he could locate Boyle, Allen was interrupted by a letter on a patrolman on the accusation of "killing" that he had stolen a ring belonging to the receiver of stolen goods under the latter's arrest.

Allen moved up to the West One Hundredth street station, nevertheless took time in his hours away from duty to watch the house on West Thirty-first street. Again he intercepted a letter. This time addressed to Boyle in Adrian. He got permission to go to this village, and there he arrested the man whom he had been hunting for nearly four months. Reilly admitted his identity, but denied having committed murder.

Billion-Dollar Ball Held on the Steamship Imperator; Grandest Revelry by Night Ever Had on the High Seas

Five Hundred Passengers, Many of Whose Personal Fortunes Run from Several Millions Up to Fifty Millions, Assembled in the Ship's Magnificent Ballroom to Dance or See Others Do the Tango and Other Steps for Prizes Offered by the Hamburg-American Company—Splendid Gowns, Just Bought in Paris, Worn and Every Skirt Was Slit.

A billion-dollar ball—that is the latest distinction of the largest passenger steamer afloat. Probably the most remarkable "revelry by night" ever held upon the high seas was that which crowned the last voyage of the Imperator, monarch of the deep. About 600 Americans, dancers and spectators, crowded the ship's ballroom last Monday night for the final festivity before the arrival in New York. And the fortunes of this half thousand of persons have been estimated as reaching the enormous total of $1,000,000,000.

For look who traveled on the Imperator! Put Judge Elbert H. Gary and Mrs. Gary first. Judge Gary alone, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the United States Steel Corporation, has a personal fortune estimated at $50,000,000. He has an interest in banks, railroads and industrial corporations, the aggregate capitalization of which is up in the billions.

Then we have Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney and their pretty young daughter, Miss Flora. Mr. Whitney is understood to have inherited no less than $40,000,000 from his father. One of his fellow passengers was the broker, B. M. Baruch, well known on the street as "Barney," who is thought to have taken some $25,000,000 out of the stock market. Another well-known broker and society man, who would probably have led the cotillon at the billion-dollar ball if they had one, is James Cutting of New York and Newport. Mr. Cutting has frequently been reported as engaged to the wealthy and beautiful widow, Mrs. William B. Leeds.

OTHERS WHO RANK AS POSSESSORS OF MILLIONS.

Also on the passenger list were Louis C. Tiffany, of the celebrated jewelry establishment, whose father's estate was estimated at $30,000,000. The major portion went to Louis, Charles T. Crocker, the grandson of a California "Forty-Niner," has been credited with a fortune of $20,000,000, including what his wife brought him. The great wealth of John R. Drexel, the Philadelphia banker, and of Oscar Straus, the merchant prince, needs no comment. Both were on the Imperator. And so was Harry H. Black, formerly the active head of the "sky-scraper trust." The United States Realty Company, of which he was president, owned the Hotel Plaza. According to reports Mr. Black paid the lump sum of $6,000,000 at the time of his divorce from the woman who later married Tyler Morse.

Julius S. Bach, a rich banker, returned on the Imperator. So did the lawyer James Drexler, for years the private counsel of Charles F. Murphy. So did John N. Willys of the Willys Overland Company, John H. McCollough, Francis Wellman, George M. Lauder, Dr. Witt Talmadge and many other men of wealth and prominence.

THEN THERE WERE WOMEN WHO HAVE BIG FORTUNES.

Not was all the money represented at the billion-dollar ball in the hands of men. For was not Mrs. Oliver H. Belmont present, whose husband is supposed to have left her five millions? And Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt was on the ship, and Miss Laura A. Braun of Chicago, who admitted that she was at least $200,000 richer than when she went aboard. She played baccarat wisely and well at Engle's, the resort near Paris. So, you see, it really was GOMEZ party.

WALL STREET.

Market Closing—Trading all through the session was influenced largely by a disinclination to make fresh commitments because of the fact that the Stock Exchange will not be open until noon on Monday.

Trading was dull after the rally from the low point of the first hour. Lehigh Valley held its advance, closing at 150. U. S. Steel closed at 64½, a gain of ¼ over the close of Friday. Canadian Pacific closed 4½ higher at 232, with irregular fractional changes in the general list.

Total sales, $6,000 shares. Opening was irregular in the initial trading and a wavering tendency was evident. Before the end of the first fifteen minutes the list generally was established at a moderately lower level.

There was no evidence of buying by the houses, which was the feature for the past two days, and selling orders could only be executed at some amount of concession.

Union Pacific opened ¼ higher at 150 and then yielded ½ to 153½. Reading sustained a loss of ½, where it sold down to 168½.

The greatest decline was in Canadian Pacific, which yielded 1½ to 230½. After the recession which followed the opening the leading stocks went to lower prices, or as low as were touched on Friday, before showing resistance.

A partial recovery occurred in the latter part of the first hour, with Canadian Pacific rising to 232, and Lehigh Valley to 152½, or ½ above the close of yesterday. Rock Island declined at the opening, but recovered most of the decline in the rally which followed.

It is thought that its effect on the market is over as a disturbing factor of any account.
